SAINTSMAN

Hi Mary;

I couldn't find any pictures of myself so I picked up last year's annual for you. The ASB just had one lying around so I liberated it for the cause of your enjoyment. Also they said I could have it.

Please send up your picture so I can compare you with your 1st grade picture that I have in my wallet. From what I read, you seem to think that you wrote me a terrible letter the first time that you wrote me a couple weeks ago. Well, I enjoyed it very much and am glad that you answered me. Also from what I read you want me to go back to booze rather than grass. Well, if in your next letter you say that you want me to stop smoking, I will.

If you don't mind, I would like to come up during Easter Vacation. I would really appreciate seeing you again.
(Maybe I could be your 2nd or 3rd love)

Oh, by the way, do you like my new handwriting. I picked up this style

THE SAINTSMAN

This edition of The Saintsman is the result of many hours of work by a very dedicated group of Saintsman.

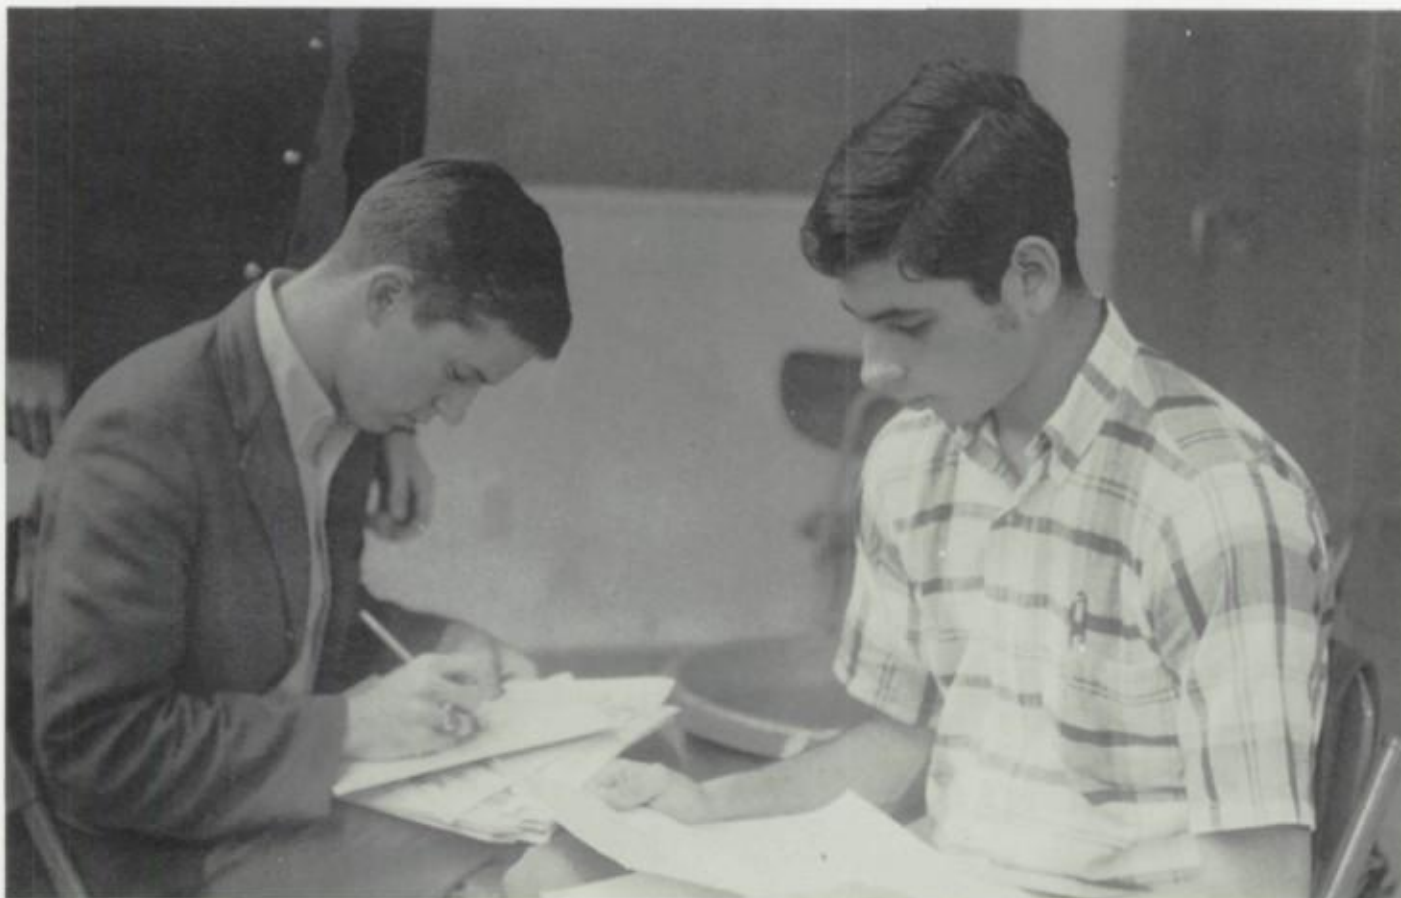

Many new ideas and innovations were affected by editor-in-chief Dave Blanchfield. The pictures of the class of '69 were designed and arranged by senior editor Dominic Vitrano. The junior, sophomore, and freshman sections were compiled by underclass editor Jim Wilkins. Dances, clubs, and the numerous aspects of campus life were organized by activities editor Tim Dunn. Simon Mayeski, sports editor, was responsible for the many athletic activities included in this annual. The photographs in The Saintsman were under the watchful eye of Karl Eklund, photography editor. Moderator for the yearbook was Fr. Gary Rye and assistants were Dennis Bergevin, Jim Fornaca, and Scott McColl.

THE AUGUSTINIAN

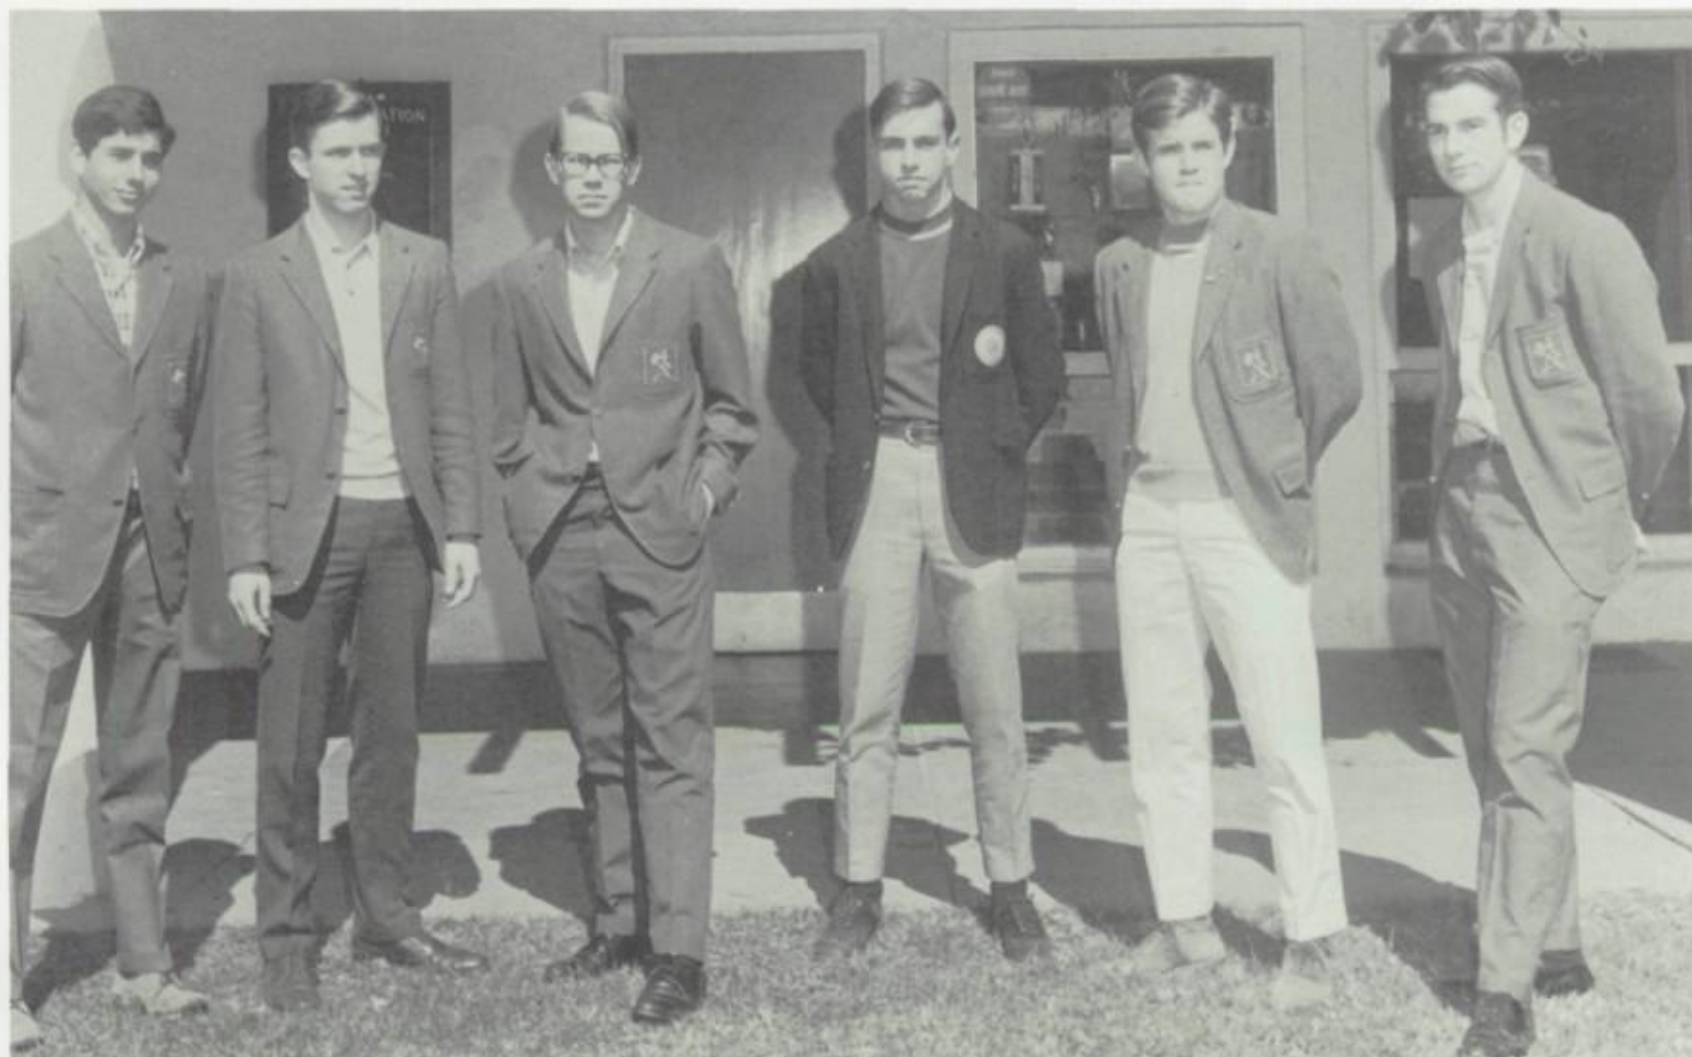

Moderator Mr. J. Michael McDade and editor-in-chief Si Mayeski.

The school newspaper was one of the most outstanding publications on campus this year. Under a new moderator, Mr. J. Michael McDade, the newspaper fulfilled its policy of providing factual, up-to-date, and provocative news.

Editor-in-chief Simon Mayeski, with the assistance of his associate editor, Tim Dunn, produced a quality newspaper that was the most prominent in the San Diego area. Sports editor, Gary Monahan, assisted by Dave Maloney, reviewed all the sports news in his very comprehensive and complete sports column. Activities editor, Dominic Vitrano, related the events and programs on campus. Tony DeSoto was this year's news editor and Dave Arredondo held the position of features editor.

The many reporters must also be commended for their prompt and accurate articles which made this newspaper possible.

TRADITION

Saints' literary publication, Tradition, was in full swing this year. The collection of poetry, essays, and short stories provided an outlet for the more creative talents of Saintsmen. Mr. John Bowman was again moderator and Karl Eklund was editor-in-chief. Assistant editor was Paul Blasinski who aided Eklund in the careful gleaning of the best works from the many entries. Staff assistants included Tim Dunn and Jim Stevens.

BLACK FRIARS

Saints' drama club, The Black Friars, presented Joseph Kesselring's comedy, Arsenic and Old Lace. Among the girls who performed in the play were Francine Boggio and Emilita Valdes of OLP and Ronnie Burkhalter from Rosary. Al Alongi of the class of '66 also appeared. Saintsmen who joined the Friars were Dennis Wahl, Tony Meierbachtol, Tim Dunn, Tim Chambers, Jim Pianka, Tom Ritz, Jim Shaules, Jim Proctor, and Tony DeSoto. Mr. John Bowman was moderator.

The band was truly representative of Saints' spirit this year. Again under the direction of Mr. Henry Frabotta, the band was outstanding in all its endeavors. Senior Tony DeSoto was drum major.

Some of the many events in which the band participated were the many football halftimes, Mother Goose Parade, the Christmas Parade in La Jolla, the May Time Band Review, rallies, and a concert on open house.

CHESS CLUB

This year's SACA, otherwise known by all as the St. Augustine Chess Association, had one of its most successful seasons. Being completely undefeated in match play was one of its outstanding characteristics. President was Jim Stevens, at first board, and vice president was Bob Moreno, moderator of the second board.

MATH CLUB

This year's math club was a very active group. Attending math field days at Occidental and San Diego State Colleges were highlights of this year's activities. In addition to these events, the math club staged the 10th annual Saint Augustine Math Field Day for parochial grammar schools. Eighth-graders from all over the county attended this successful program.

OFFICERS: President, Simon Mayeski, Vice president, Dominic Vitrano; Secretary, George Baranowski; Treasurer, Dennis Wahl.

PEP CLUB

President: Joe DiBernardo

This year's Pep Club became an outstanding organization on campus. Under the guidance of co-moderators Mr. Michael Greenwald and Fr. Richard Smith, the club showed imagination and dedication. Many free weekends were spent at school in preparation for rallies and athletic games.

The pep rallies exhibited marked originality as did the many banners and posters. The skits for the football rallies provided a consistent show of creative ideas and, for once, humor. One innovation was the participation of a faculty member, Mr. Greenwald. President of the Pep Club was Joe DiBernardo and special recognition must go to Kyle Brooks.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

This year's Lettermen's Club was undoubtedly one of the most active in years. Under the leadership of president Tony Meierbachtol, vice president Leo Zofrea, secretary Bill Daron, and treasurer Al Ambort, the club sponsored dances, a new Pepsi machine in the coaches' office, and numerous social events with girls' clubs from other schools.

Moderator Mr. Joseph DiTomaso enthusiastically encouraged the club to initiate these new activities and to become a more prominent campus organization.

SPIRITUAL

An integral part of campus life at Saints is focused on the spiritual development of each Saintsman. He is presented with the opinions of many of the most prominent religious authorities and the moral and ethical teachings of the Church. It is then the duty of the student, under the guidance of his teachers, to accept or reject willingly and intelligently the religious and moral outlook on life.

On special occasions during the year, masses were celebrated in the gym. Days of recollection were also held for the students, and a special marriage seminar for seniors was organized at the USD College for Women.

A very active group of Saintsmen are the members of the Bowling Club. Meeting every Wednesday at Aztec Bowl, the teams exhibit expert skill and a competitive spirit.

Top team for the first half of the bowling season was "The Bummers." Bob Kenniston held high score for the season. Other Saintsmen prominent in the club were Don Green and Andy Brejnak.

STAGE CREW

The stage crew this year was responsible for the designing and construction of the scenery for the school's dramatic production. The complicated setting required some unique effects and props. Under the leadership of Dave Rotner, this crew of talented and imaginative Saintsman staged a very professional production.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photography editor Karl Eklund at work in darkroom.

Photography was marked this year by new and professional techniques.

Karl Eklund, as photography editor of The Saintsman and The Augustinian, provided the various publications with a constant supply of photos of every school activity and function.

Special recognition must go to Jerry Welch who was one of the chief contributors to the fine collection of photographs evident in this yearbook and the newspaper.

The staff, moderated by Fr. Richard K. Smith, was greatly expanded this year to include a large number of underclassmen and a special photography class.

The Junior Red Cross chapter at Saints became involved in many activities this year. The Red Cross exists for the purpose of alleviating the suffering of others. Among the projects this year were a clothing drive for Hillcrest Receiving Home and a drive for membership and money. The money was used for the various activities.

Moderator for the club was Mr. William T. McLaughlin and the officers were: President, Jack Dobranski; Vice president, Paul Pacior; and Secretary-Treasurer, Ismael Orara.

MOD SCHEDULE

Seniors make use of free-time for group study.

An innovation for seniors and juniors this year was the introduction of the modular scheduling system. This system, which breaks the school day into 30 minute lectures and 60 to 90 minute small group sessions, allows the students to become acquainted with a college-type atmosphere.

The student has more time to discuss subjects in depth and to become active as an individual rather than just as a member of another class. It gives the students an opportunity to help each other and to share ideas and knowledge. It was met with general favor by the students and acknowledged as a great success.

When Horace Greeley said, "Go west, young man," San Diego was already a moving and growing city. Having started from the small Indian mission of Father Junipero Serra, it grew, though not without its setbacks, into what is now a modern community. Since its first days under the Spanish lords, San Diego has experienced a history as few cities have known. From Indian massacres, Spanish ranchos, international exhibitions, to a city threatened by foreign invasion, San Diego has known moments of golden prosperity and virtual extinction. Through the years, San Diego has learned the value of progressive thought tempered with cautious patience and has never forgotten the heritage and culture left by its founders. Nowhere in these United States can any city boast the beauty, culture, and progress found in this one city of San Diego. St. Augustine High School congratulates San Diego and wishes it many more years of growth and prosperity.

ART CLASS

ACTIVITIES

FOOTBALL

Saints offers outstanding opportunities for members of the freshman class in athletics. Whether competing on a varsity or J.V. team in some sports, or on freshman teams in others, the Class of 1972 participated fully in all sport areas.

In football, for example, a large number of freshmen played on the Junior Varsity, while an even greater number gained valuable experience playing frosh football under coach Bob Gengler.

The freshman team compiled a 2-3 record, but finished strong, due to a fine defense by defeating University (32-0) and Marian. (7-6).

"This year's team had a great defense but the offense just didn't gel," stated coach Bob Gengler. This defense was led by halfbacks Frank Battiste and Hank Adams, linebackers Calvin Ricks, Pat Freese, and Larry Mascari, and linemen Mike McDonald and Jim Joyner, and middle guard Carlos Quevado. The offense featured quarterback Chuck Flowers, and linemen Walt Shields, Mike Ryan, and Paul Derenthal.

BASKETBALL

This year's frosh basketball team, under Father William Griswold, nearly equaled the record of last Year's "Freshman Invincibles" with a 15-3 record. Competing against many J.V. teams, the speedy and aggressive frosh managed to defeat and humiliate many larger teams. Despite a severe lack of height the team, led by Robert George, Bob McIver, and Charlie Flowers, turned out a number of fine prospects for the future.

FROSH BASEBALL

FROSH PLAY VARSITY, J.V. ALSO

Besides the separate frosh team, the varsities of some sports are also open to freshmen. Ernie Echaves and Joe Cave, for example, lettered in varsity wrestling this year as freshmen. Besides, wrestling, golf, tennis, cross-country, track, and swimming are open to freshmen on the varsity level.

Most of these wrestlers are freshmen, and they have the opportunity to earn a varsity letter.

Brian Drummy flashes his skill--- known as "mashie magic" in the trade.

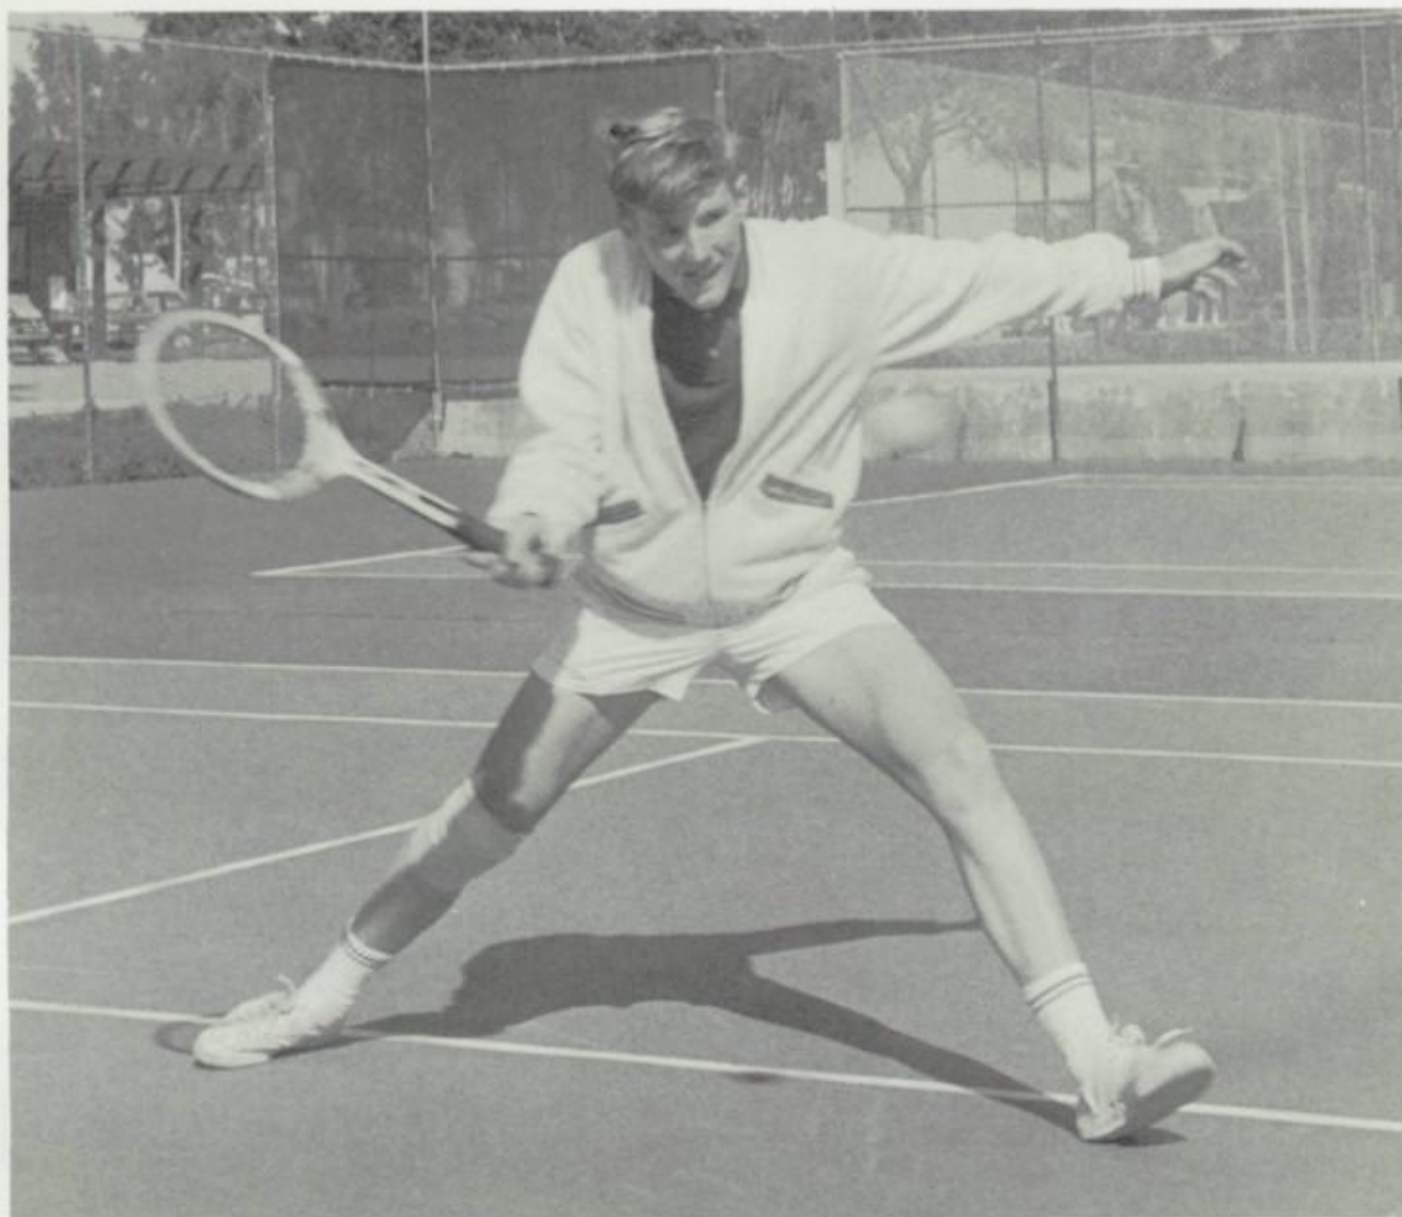

TENNIS

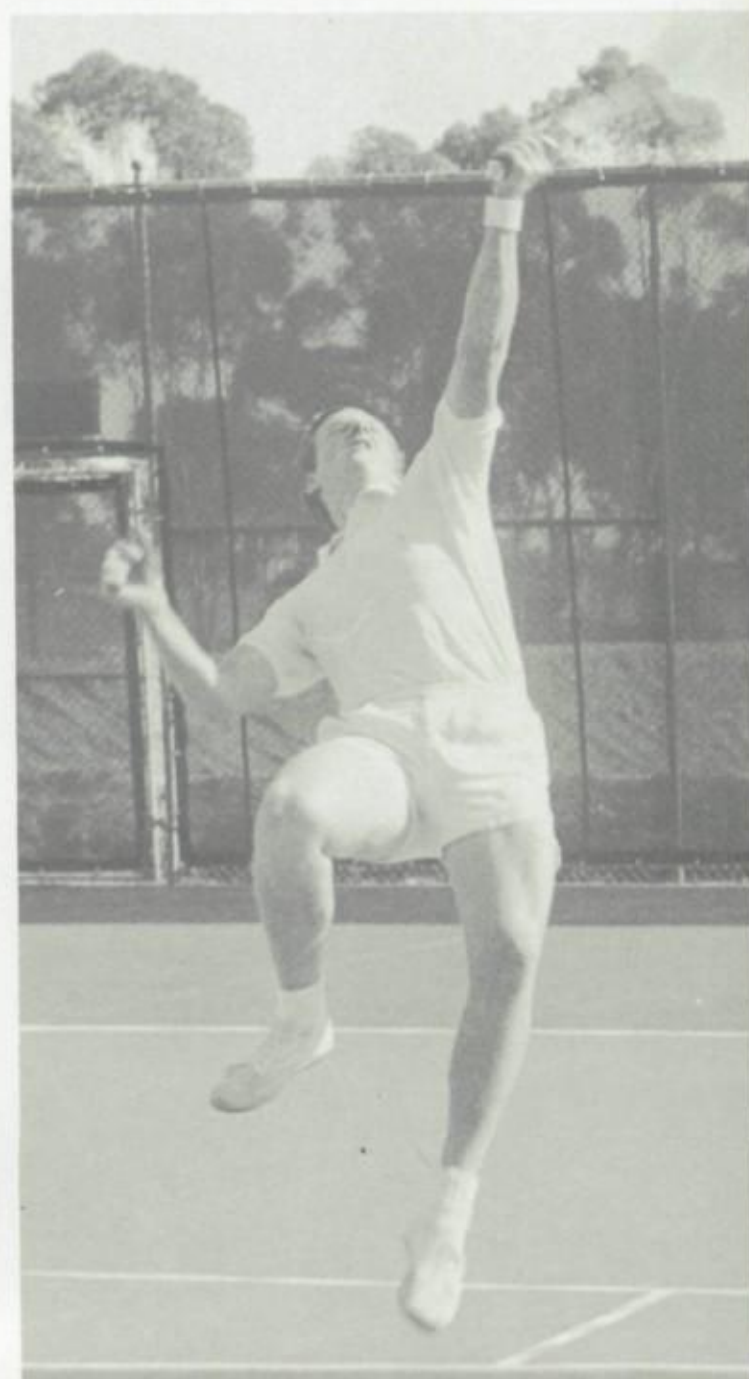

This year appeared to be a top one for Saints in the tennis department. Coach Mike Morgan appeared confident of taking at least twelve matches, and had high hopes for Saints second Eastern League title. A number of fine players had a chance at CIF honors, and the inspired playos' veterans Chris De Graff and Mark Schmersal in singles, and Andy Brejnak and Brian Chambers in doubles defended Saints reputation of fine net squads.

SCMERSAL AND DEGRAFF BATTLE IT OUT.

GOLF

Although not as experienced as some of the teams of the past, this year's varsity golf team has plenty of new, young talent. Due to several ineligible players, the squad is made up entirely of underclassmen, and a number of these are freshmen, so while the 1969 golf team may not be ranked with the best, it should produce a lot of future talent, while at the same time adequately representing Saints in Eastern League competition. With Coach McDade's talent and experience, the end of the season will have seen the formation of a contender once again.

Harris, Frank Barrack, Mike Boyd, Tony Senior, Bill Agostino, Tim Chambers.

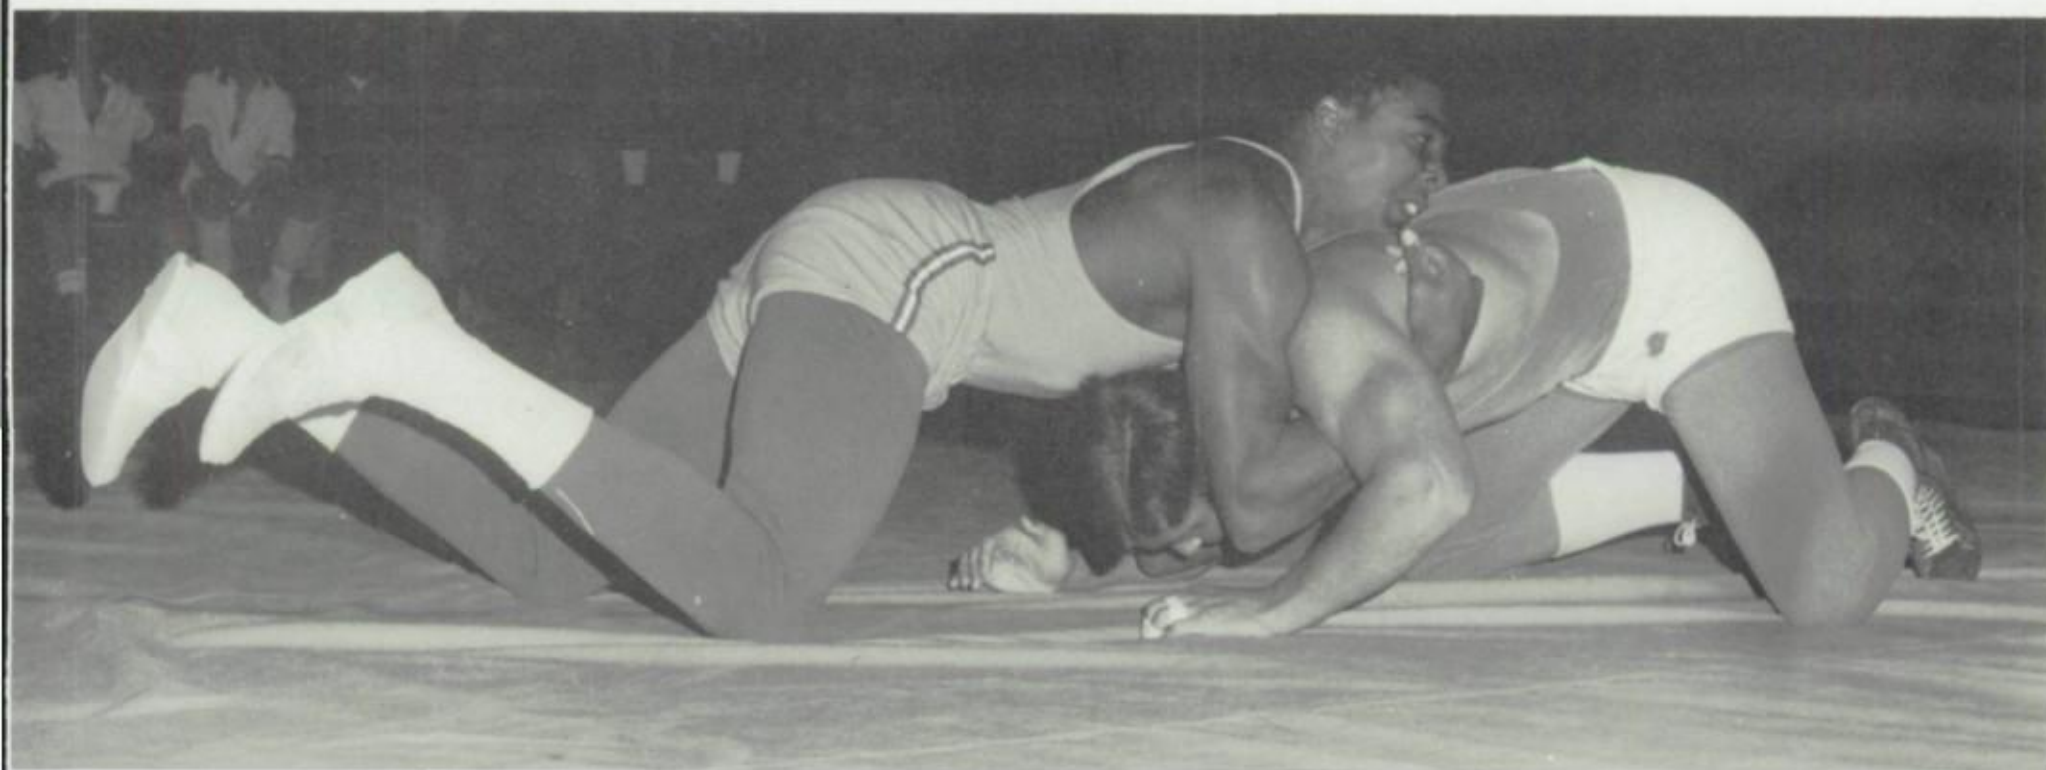

In its fourth season as a varsity sport at Saints, wrestling came into its own. Opponents knew that when they had to grapple with the young, aggressive, mat-men from Saints, they were in for a tough battle.

This year, the wrestling squad possessed what may have been lacking in previous years: depth and balance. We had good men in every weight, and this put a great deal more pressure on opponents. In his first year as coach, Fred Carbone got that "little bit extra" from his athletes, men like Tony Senior (Most Valuable), Tim Chambers (four-year letterman), Bill Agostino, Nate Harris, and Ed Farrell from the senior class, and underclassmen Steve and Ernie Echaves, Kim Yourczek, Martin Giandoni, and Joe Cave. The amount of young talent found on the varsity and J.V. should insure another rough team in 1970.

Heavyweight Nate Harris begins trapping an unwary opponent.

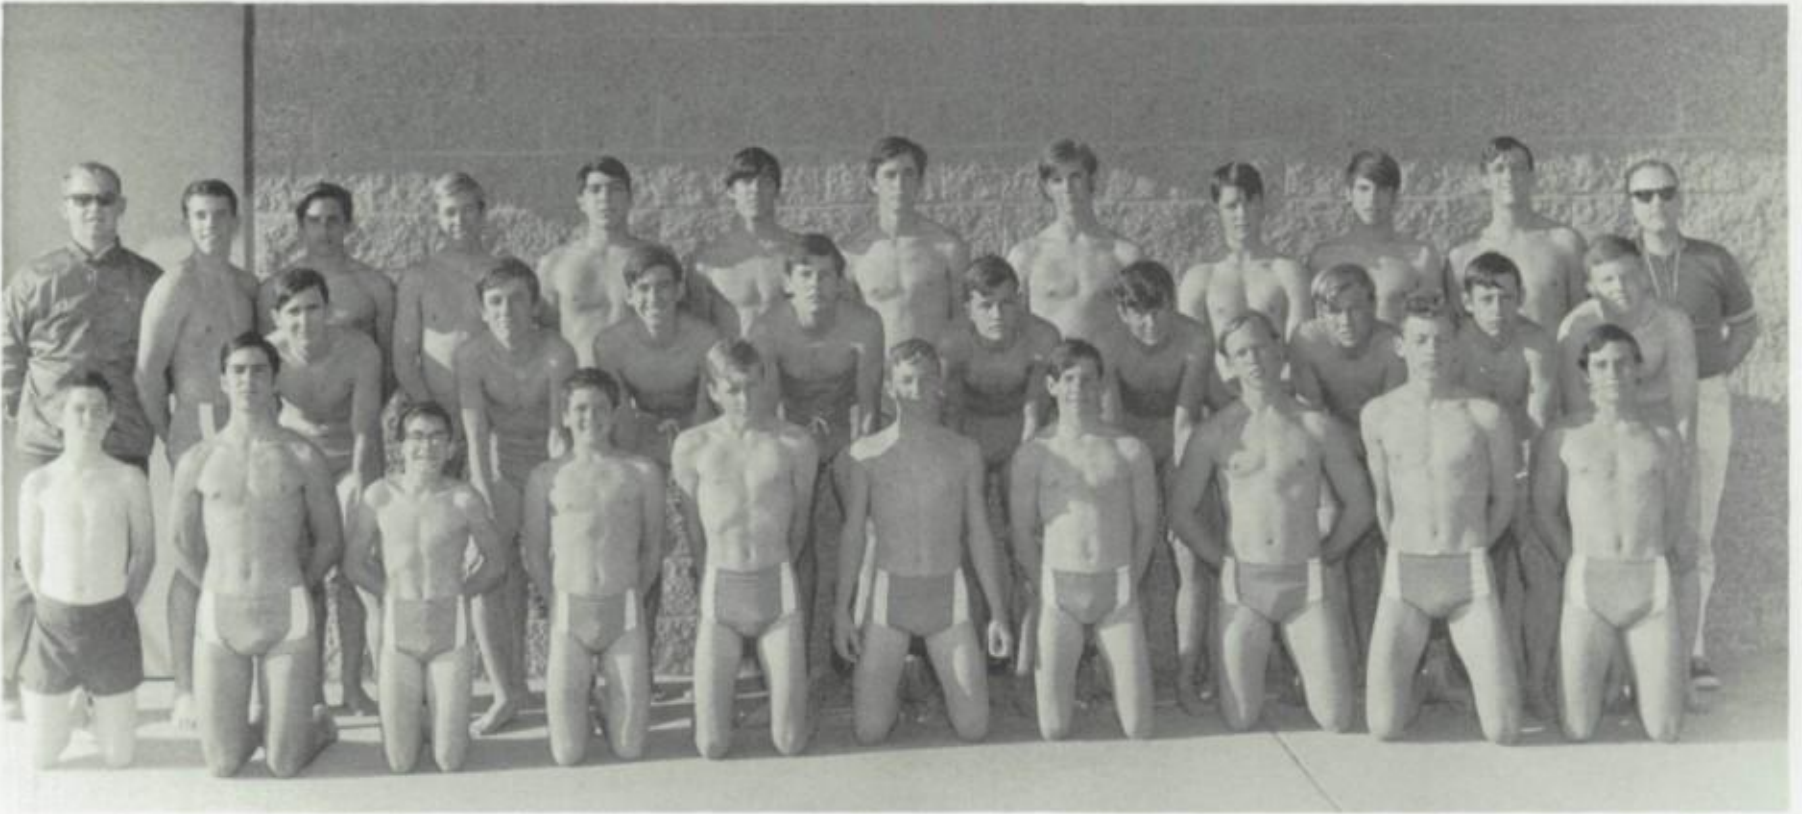

Coach Fred Carbone watches along with rest of team as Tim wins again.

SWIMMING

During its short history, the St. Augustine Swimming team has earned a county-wide reputation as one of the best. Last year, the "C" team won the CIF title, and returnees to this year's team include Rod Lorang, Pete Rooney, and Roy Weber. Under new coach Jim Tollefson and returning coach Ned Wilson, the swimming team should continue to represent Saints in grand fashion.

Under Coach Bill O'Shaughnessy, Saints Cross-Country team made tremendous progress, as evidenced by the fact that Saints this year captured its first Cross-Country dual meet victory, and repeatedly gave League competition. The famed Saints spirit was found in great quantities on this squad again, as the amount of participants will attest.

Even more promising was the fact that this year's team consisted almost entirely of underclassmen. Four year letterman Phil Dunne was the only senior on the squad, and so future "harrier" teams at Saints will have the experience lacking at times in the past. Tom Young, whom Coach O'Shaughnessy describes as probably the best runner in the city by the time he is a senior, Jay Warren, Leo Cauchon, and Mickey McGuire are only a few of the outstanding runners who will return next fall and perhaps lead Saints to its first Cross Country League championship.

LEFT, Junior runner Tom Young makes that turn during Eastern League preliminaries, followed by Dunne and other runners from various league schools. O'Shaughnessy claims Young "will be the best in the city."

TRACK

Under Coaches Vic Player and Bill O'Shaughnessy, the track team had high hopes for the best team ever, and justified those hopes by opening the season with a tri-meet victory over University and Marian for the Catholic track title.

Such standouts as Tom Bonnell and Jesse Ochoa in the dashes, Steve Dries in the hurdles, Tony Senior in the high jump, Al Ambort, Jerry Bales-treri and Larry Smith in the shot-put, Phil Dunne, Ernie Macias, and Larry Eiswald in the distance events, and many other underclass athletes all contributed to the team effort which is so necessary for a winner.

The ability, drive, and determination of Coaches Player and O'Shaughnessy were a tremendous asset in producing a track team of which Saints can be proud.

After a slow start, this year's Varsity Baseball Squad began to pick up a few breaks here and there, and show its true character. Once the pitching staff came around, Saints took its rightful place among Eastern League powers, with the skillful and patient coaching of Bill Whitaker.

A strong pitching staff, long a Saints trademark, consisted of Ron Woychak, Mike Ottombrino, Chris Kuhn and John D'Acquisto, and was ably supported by the hitting of Tony DeSanti, Dom Vitrano, Doug Fisher, Pat Tormey and Rod Spence. Bill Daron, Leo Zofrea, and Jack Mannix added their defensive skills, and Chris Kinsel and Jack Dobransky came up with some timely plays. With two sophomores and three juniors in starting roles, the team also shows good promise for future years.

A young, aggressive, impulsive basketball squad may at times be beset with inconsistency; at times it may be amazingly brilliant, while at other times it may have trouble jelling, trouble functioning as a team. Throughout the course of the 1969 basketball season, the Saints' squad numbered five sophomores, seven juniors, and three seniors, and, as could be expected, the Purple Gang was at the same time encouraging and disappointing. The victories over Mt. Miguel, Crawford, and Lincoln were especially heartening, as was the fact that Von Gengler's Express finished first in the Consolation finals of the Kiwanis Tourney, second in the Consolation finals of the University Toutney, and third in the Eastern League. Led by guards Emlow Henry and Gary Monahan, forwards Tom Davis and Ron Wrigley, and center George Evans, who were supported strongly by Dennis Wahl and Mike Collier, a revamped unit steadily improved until by season's end, the Express was recognized throughout the area as one of the top teams, ready to upset anyone they play.

Next Year? Conservatives estimates agree that the Purple Gang will be at least the number one team in the county, and a Saints dynasty will emerge to dominate the San Diego scene in the future.

Due to the fact that a number of fine prospects were carried on the varsity during the early part of the season, the J.V. basketball team floundered around the .500 mark, not really looking bad, but just unable to catch fire. When the varsity dropped several fine players to the J.V., however, at the start of league competition, things happened. Suddenly the J.V. became an awesome machine, crushing everything in its path. Frank George, Pat Tormey, Dan Ybarra, and Ron Wrigley joined Jim "Big E" Langland and Kevin Franc and Saints stayed undefeated in league play, except for a game against Hoover, in which four started, fouled out, and a Game against San Diego, when injuries reduced the team to seven, three of whom were also hurt. Such a fine showing promises great things for the next few years—look for a couple of CIF titles from these men.

The 1968 Saints Varsity football team carried on the tradition of the great teams of the past as they drove to a 7-2 record and the co-championship of the Eastern League. Although kept out of the play-offs by one point and a few votes, Saints made themselves known all over the area, led by the number one defense in the county. Led by Eastern League players Larry Smith, Danny Reis, and Tony Meierbachtol, the defense allowed only 5.8 points per game. On the other hand the offense, spearheaded by all-leaguers Tom Bonnell, the league's co-back of the year, and along with Larry Smith an all-CIF selection, scored 22 points a game.

KEARNY

The opening game of the year saw Saints matched against a team destined to reach the CIF finals. A stiff defense and Tom Bonnell's three touchdowns led the underdog Saints to a 20-13 upset over Kearney at Balboa Stadium.

Bonnell scores against Kearny with help from Tony Cutri and others.

UNIVERSITY

The following week saw a typical Saints-Uni contest as neither side seemed able to dominate the other until in the last quarter an intercepted pass gave Uni a 13-7 victory, and Saints the loss.

Reis, Daron, Zofrea, Smith and Manard encircle and bring down Don.

CRAWFORD

Four intercepted passes and a fumble recovery helped the defense shutout the Crawford Colts in the opening league game, 20-0. Saints ran its record to 3-1 as Tom Bonnell's two touchdowns and 176 yards gained paced the offense, and Reis, Daron, Tormey, and Meierbachtol each picked off passes.

MISSION BAY

Hugh Harris slices through secondary during scoring spree against M. B.

Bonnell, Cepeda, and Harris each scored twice, and Mike Ottombrino completed 11 passes for 187 yards as Saints trampled Mission Bay, 46-0. The 46 points (34 in the second half) was the highest Saints' total since 1930. The rugged defense held the Bucs to a-7 yards rushing and 91 total.

Quarterback Mike Ottombrino looks for receiver during comeback.

MORSE

A phenomenal last-minute drive, which saw Mike Ottombrino complete six straight passes and move the team from its 20 to the Morse eight yard line, ended in a blocked field goal as Morse took a one-point victory and the Eastern League playoff spot, 14-13. Pat Tormey returned an interception 43 yards for a TD.

Manard and Bonnell lead the way for Cepeda down the line.

MADISON

Saints crushed Madison on a fog-bound field behind a stiff defense which recovered 4 fumbles. The 26-0 victory was a costly one however as quarterback Mike Ottombrino was injured for the rest of the season.

Defensive back Tony Meierbachtol traps a would-be Hornet runner.

LINCOLN

Tom Bonnell swept around right end for 28 yards with 1:48 left in the game for the only score as Saints defeated Lincoln, 7-0. Saints' defense halted a Lincoln drive on our 40, and the offense marched 60 yards in 8 plays. Lincoln penetrated as close as our 10, but an interception in the endzone by Meierbachtol ended that threat.

Ambort, Leto, Manard, and Pacior zero in on opponent, as Cardinal gets wings clipped.

HOOVER

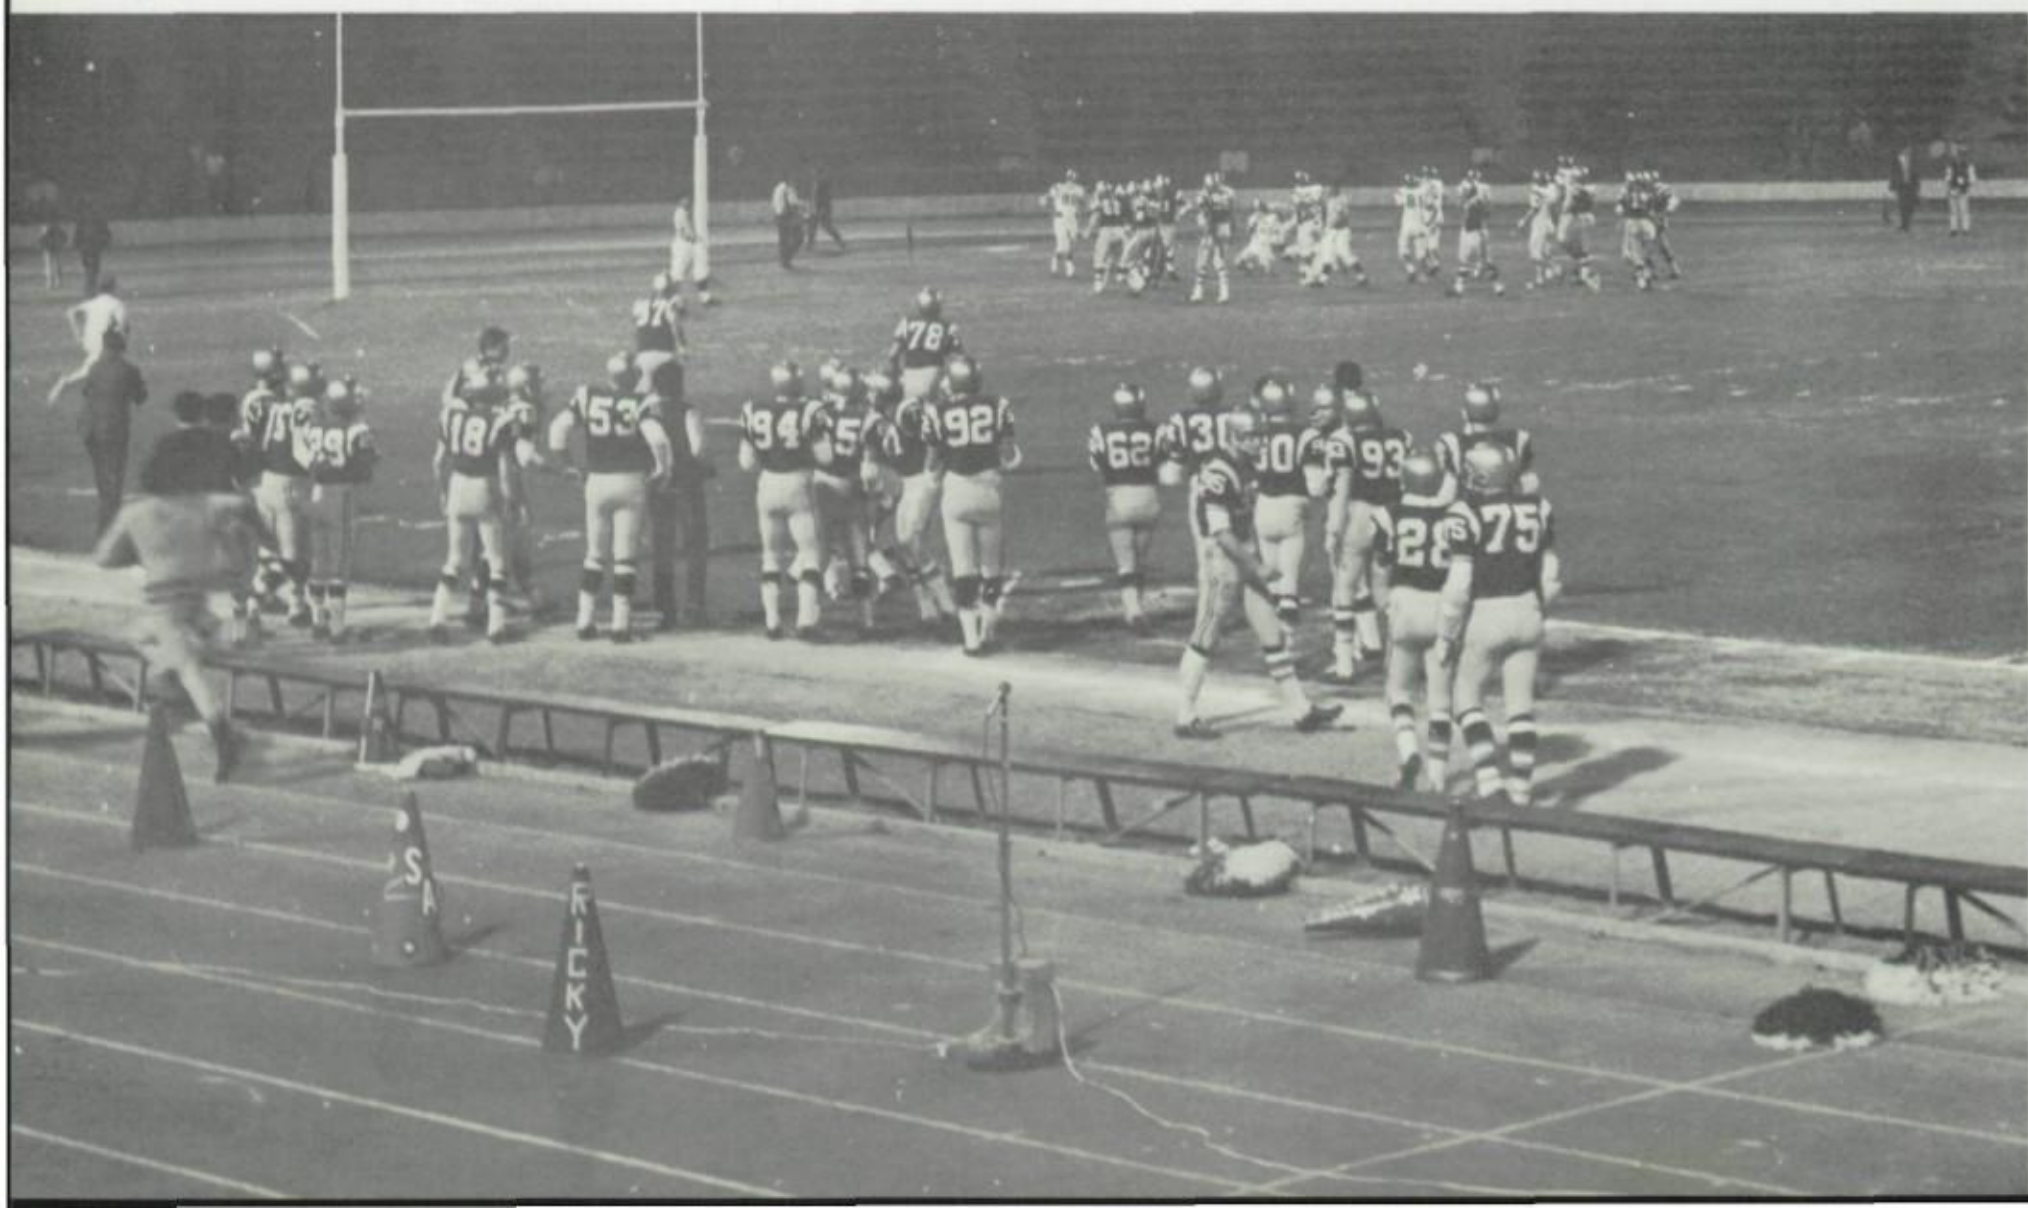

Tom Bonnell led Saints with three touchdowns, one an 80-yard kick-off return, as we handed a 28-6 defeat to Hoover at our Homecoming on November 8. Danny Reis recovered a fumble to set up a score, and on the last play of the game Bill Daron had a 35-yard run called back on a penalty.

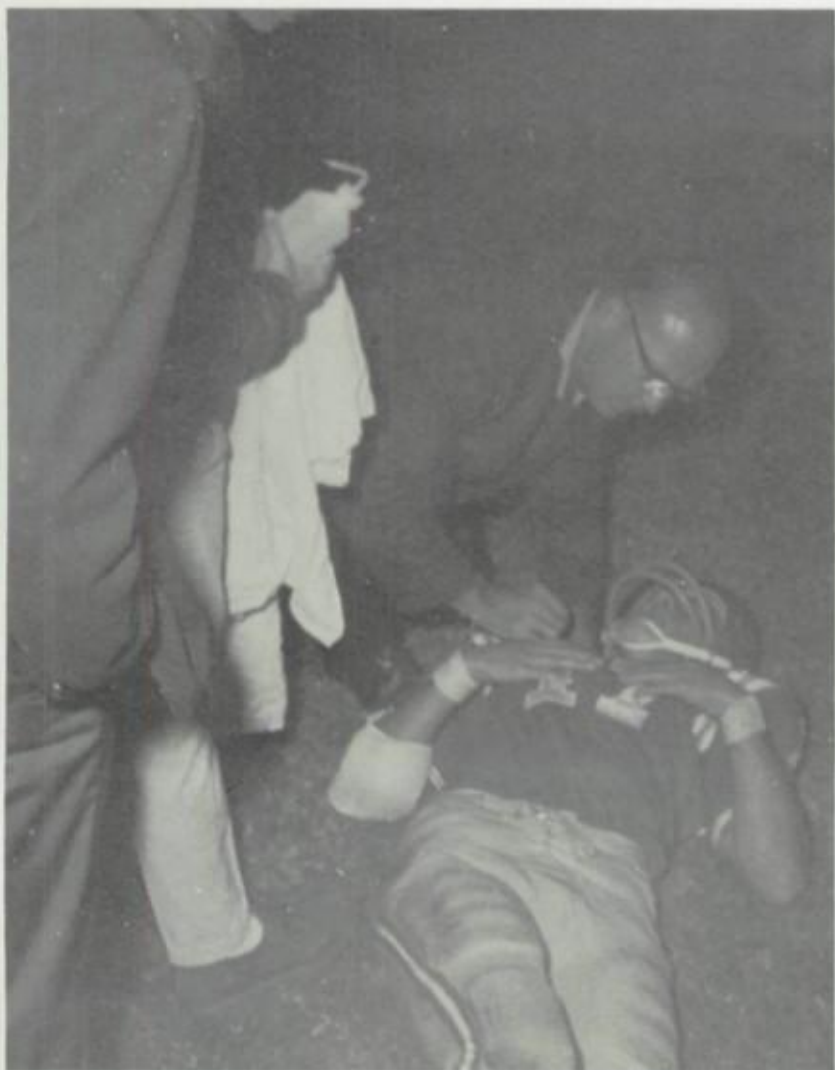

SAN DIEGO

Pacior and Tormey watch as Daron rips Cavers in smash victory.

Saints, led by Eastern League co-player of the year Tom Bonnell, tied Morse for the Eastern League football title by smashing San Diego 28-6 in the final game of the season. Bonnell again scored three touchdowns and ran for 237 yards on 20 carries as he ran his season total to 1029 yards and 17 touchdowns. After the opening series of downs, the defense allowed only 67 yards total and 3 first downs. The Saints' defense ended up first in the county, giving up only 5.8 yards per game.

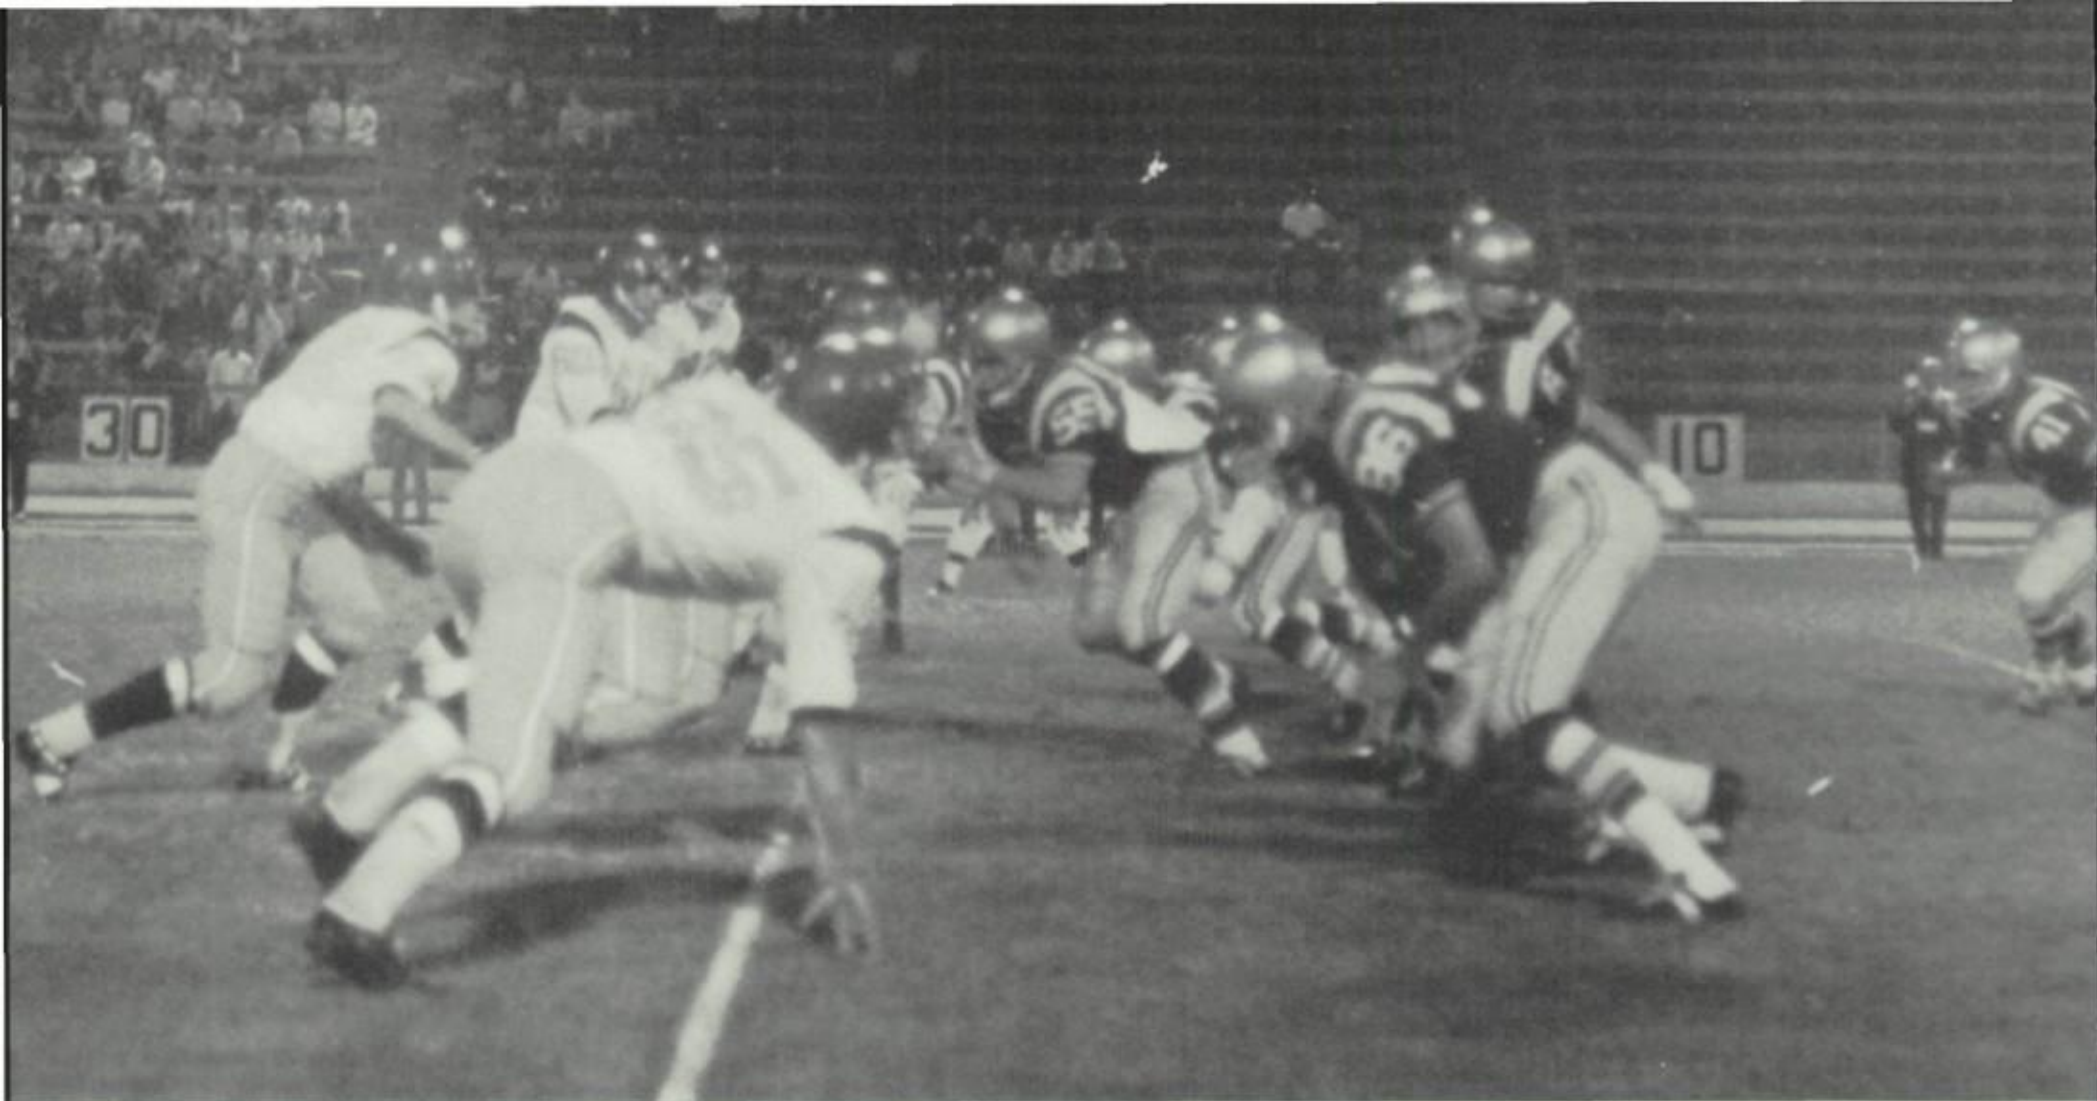

Senior quarterback Mike Ottombrino injured for the season.

Tough Bill Daron in a reflective moment.

Coach Vic Player and back John Cepeda discuss . . .

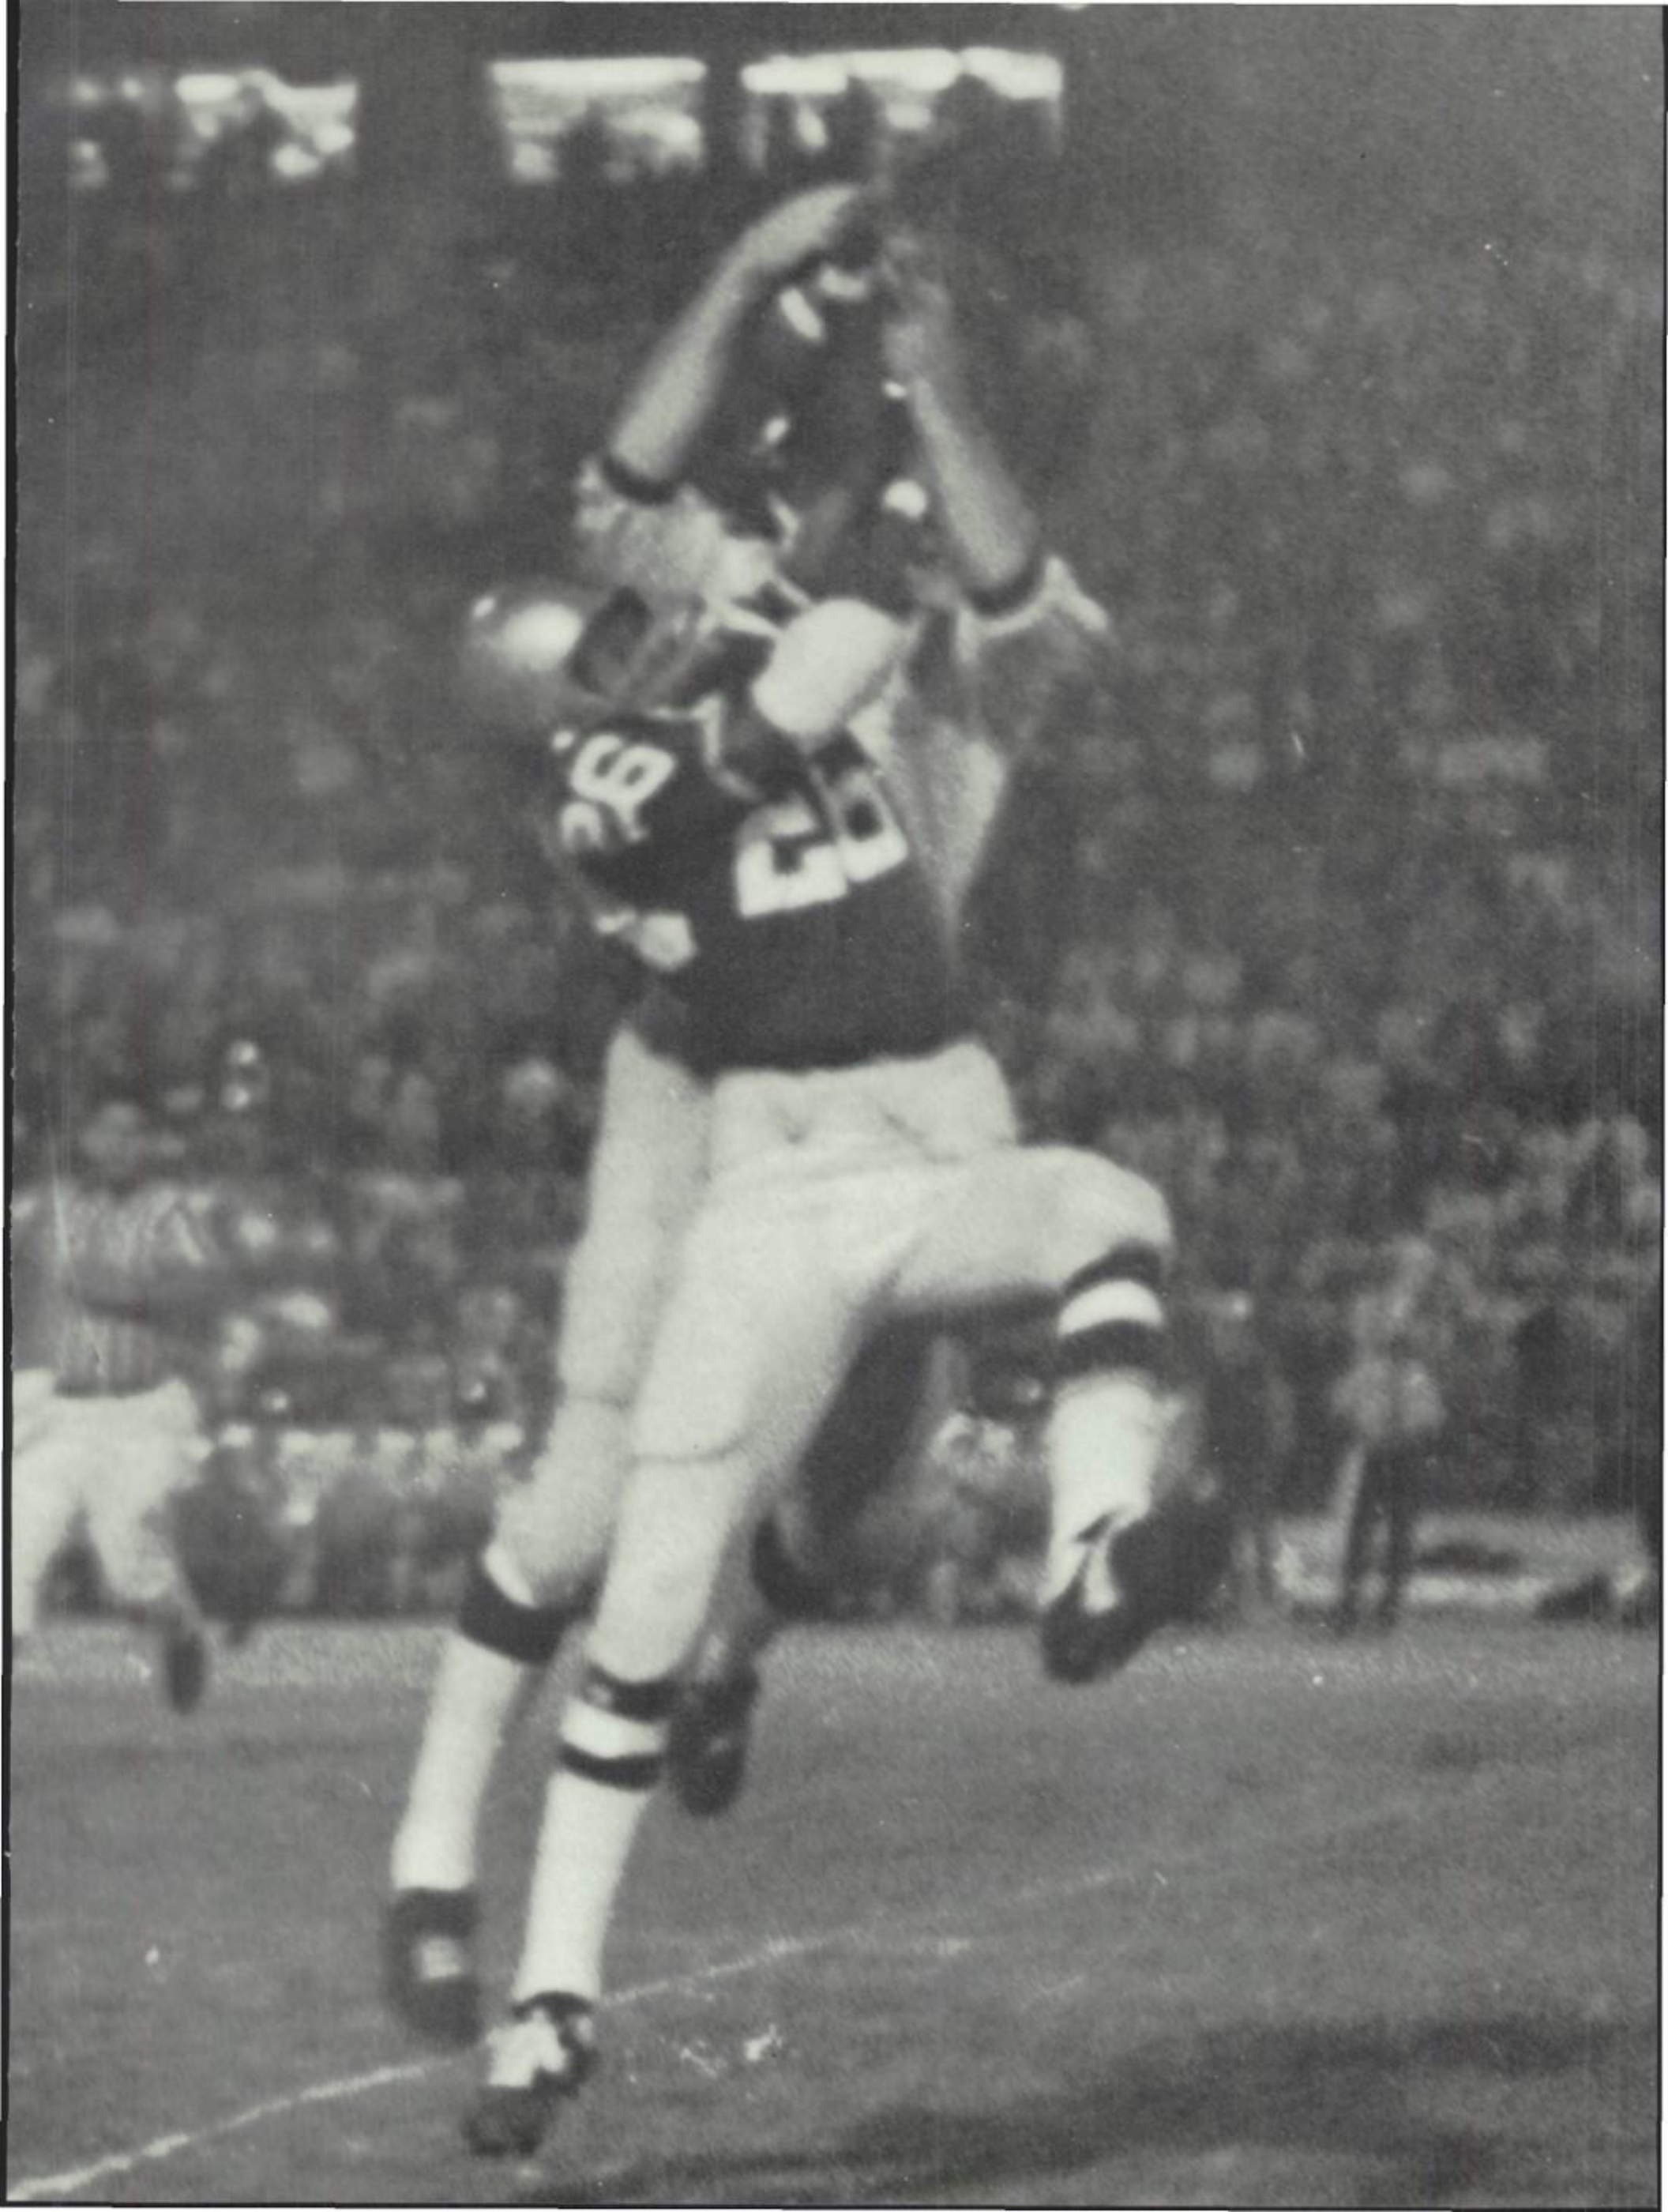

the coaching staff

In four years as head football coach at Saints, Joe DiTomaso has built a dynasty. Following a bleak freshman season, the DiTomaso-coached Saints have taken a second and two firsts in league play. Coach himself played varsity ball here for four years. Coach DiTomaso has earned the respect, devotion, and admiration of all he has come into contact with at Saints. His assistant, Vic Player is another former Saints backfield star, and is responsible for our tremendous backfields of the past two years. Coach Player is a winner, in the true sense of the word.

JUNIOR VARSITY

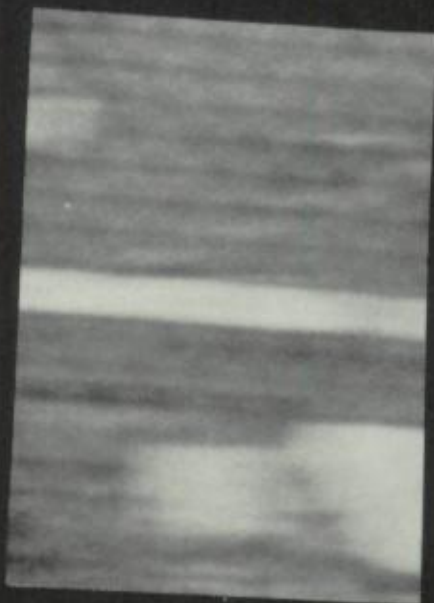

FOOTBALL TEAM

Although Saints' JV football team finished the season with a 4-5 record, the team was never out of contention in any game. Their wins came in high-scoring affairs, while the games they did lose usually were very close. The running attack was sparked by Jesse Ochoa and Caesar Renteria, and the blocking resting in the hands of men like Willie Nathan, Willie Gibson, Bob Pruxtman, and Tom Kokinis. The defense, tops in the league, starred Ray Mederis, Curt Young, Monte Jackson, Felix Meza, and Mark Habina, just to name a few.

Despite its so-so record, the team did produce a number of skilled athletes who should be able to keep the Saints dynasty going strong for two more years.

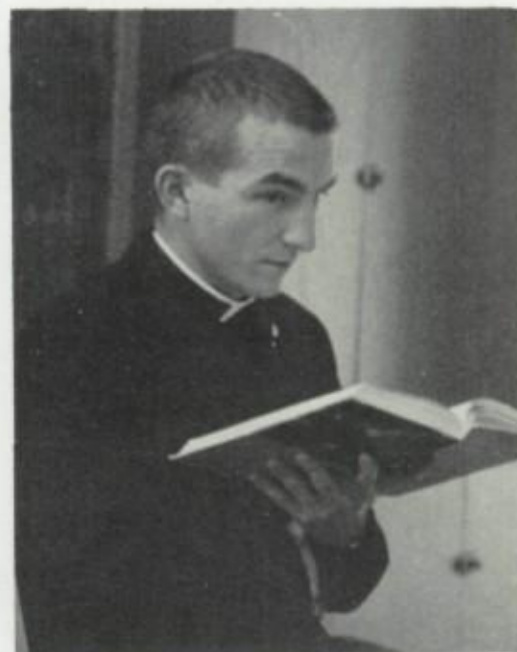

"By their pains ye shall know them."

IN MEMORIAM

On March 20 of this year we received with great sadness news of the death of one of our teachers. We will not forget this man, Mr. Warren Allen; may we live as did he—dedicated to greatness.

care! He said.
we don't dare!
they lied so i guess we can't can we . . .

He said
love!
they won't listen
"what would you do if you had to fight a war?"
do we hear?

when He died
He forgave
they won't see it.
we say we want to see it.
but do we really?

they are old and we are young 4 years we've heard but have we learned?
do we see?

while writing the minutes for the ASB council. At least I can read what I say because I print half of the time.

Please be happy for the next month and write me when you feel super happy because I love SCENTED letters.

I guess I should say goodbye for now because I'm running out of writing room.

Love, and More Love.

Lloyd

P.S. Sorry I couldn't send this book but I couldn't find my ~~color~~ Pub.

Love you!
